HOW TO QUALIFY: This is a Qualified Incumbent Examination. Your qualifications and your employment will be evaluated. If you are found “Not Qualified,” you will not receive a score.

Eligibility Requirements: You must be currently employed by Montgomery County as a Social Welfare Examiner and have served as a Social Welfare Examiner (HELP) for at least 6 months.

Anticipated eligibility: If you have not served for at least 6 months, you may participate in the examination but will be restricted from competitive appointment until such a time as you reach 6 months of service in the NY HELPS position.

To participate in the QIE exam you must complete the online application and attach the QIE Employee Form.

Seniority and Veterans credits are not permitted for Qualified Incumbent Examinations.

The Test Results: After you have submitted your examination, you will be informed of the test results. If you are found Qualified, you will receive a score of 70. The eligible list for this QIE will be established as a continuous recruitment eligible list and your score will be added to the list. You will be notified by e-mail of your final test results.

Penalty for Misrepresentation: Any intentional misrepresentation on the application or examination may result in disqualification.

This examination is being held pursuant to Civil Service Law, sections 17.4 and 57 and the Montgomery County Civil Service rules.
